Neonline India Women Initiative for Peace

North East India Women Initiative for Peace

SOUTHEAST ASIA

Northeast India Women Initiative for Peace

September 2012 Newsletter

Dear Friends,

Please join us for Northeast India Women Initiative for Peace (NWIIP)

NWIIP has been established in the year 2010 to facilitate various initiatives that will promote peace in the region, especially between the Bodos and Bengali-speaking Muslim settlers that broke out in Kokrajhar, Chirang and Dhubri districts between the Bodos and Bengali-speaking Muslim settlers that broke out in Kokrajhar, Chirang and Dhubri districts. The conflict started in February 2012 and has led to the displacement of over 100,000 people, mostly women and children.

NWIIP is working towards creating a platform for对话 and understanding between the different communities in the region. We believe that peace cannot be achieved through force, but through dialogue and understanding. We are committed to promoting non-violent conflict resolution and working towards a peaceful coexistence of all communities in the region.

We would like to invite you to join us in our work towards peace in Northeast India. Your support and contributions will be greatly appreciated.

Thank you,

NWIIP Team

---

Arunachalee Youth to Represent India in World Meet

After successfully organizing the first edition of the Transformation Challenge and the second edition still underway, Transformation Challenge to cope whole NE region.

Source: Epao.net, 25 Sep 2012

Northeast India Women Initiative for Peace

The Tripura government has announced plans to make Agartala a ‘solar city’, replacing at least 10 per cent of regular energy consumption.

Source: Epao.net, 12 Sep 2012

North East Tourism Ready" that the northeast has rich ethnic diversity, cultural heritage, wildlife and natural beauty and is ready to attract more and more tourists.

Source: IANS, 25 Sep 2012

NewstrackIndia, 24 Sep 2012

A network of over 120 women has been formed from across eight states of the region and efforts are on to further build and strengthen the network.

Source: NE Bloggers, 30 Sep 2012

Hindustan Times, 20 Sep 2012

NE peace activists blame doctors of Safdarjung Hospital for his death. Imphal resident Mutum Bony Jajo, 21, died at Fortis Hospital in rashmrbh agreement with a national tragedy resulting from the region’s abundant potential. The rivers and biodiversity of the region offer tremendous potential, which can be improved, Assam Tourism Minister Chandan Brahma said here Tuesday. Brahma told IANS at a workshop on “Making Sustainable Energy, Powering Sustainable Development’ by Department of Tourism, Government of Manipur at Hotel

North East India team’s Mt. Everest trip

President of India Pranab Mukherjee will flag off the 1st North East India on top of the world (Mt. Everest) expedition from Rastrapati Bhavan, New Delhi on March 20, 2013 at 1200 Hours. Manipur Chief Minister O Ibobi Singh is the Chief Patron of the expedition from Rastrapati Bhavan, New Delhi on March 20, 2013 at 1200 Hours. Manipur Chief Minister O Ibobi Singh is the Chief Patron of the expedition.

Source: NE Bloggers, 12 Sep 2012

The region is poised to become a favourite of tourists.

Source: Seven Sisters Post, 19 Sep 2012

Regional Centre of the United Nations Information Centre (UNIC) successfully organised film screenings and exhibition on the topic ‘Human Rights in the North East of India’ at the Tribal Research Institute, Chingmeirong yesterday.

Source: Epao.net, 15 Sep 2012

Armed Forces (Special Powers) Act, is being seen yet again in Jammu & Kashmir. Under the AFSPA women and girls have been victimised. Women leaders from the northeast have been the worst sufferers and the Government of India is being alienated, the Indigenous Northeast India Women Initiative for Peace (IWFNEI) said today.

Source: NE Bloggers, 11 Sep 2012

EPAO’s Peace Award

Niketu Iralu has been awarded the Peace Award 2012 by Peace Channel at the valedictory function of North East Youth Peace Festival set to be held on September 21.

Source: NE Bloggers, 12 Sep 2012

NE Peace, Cultural Festival; Niketu Iralu Gets Peace Award

For most of us, the North East is unknown territory. Few can go beyond naming the states, talking about militancy, and inclusion of varied histories of Northeast India in syllabus, text books of the country’s schools, colleges and universities.

Source: Epao.net, 15 Sep 2012

NewstrackIndia, 24 Sep 2012

NE Peace, Cultural Festival; Niketu Iralu Gets Peace Award

Union minister of state for development of north eastern region (DoNER) Paban Singh Ghatowar said the North Eastern region has potential to emerge as a favourite of tourists.

DoNER minister of state Paban Singh Ghatowar said the North Eastern region has potential to emerge as a favourite of tourists.